
LINDA CHESNEY

Principle, Biologist

Leaf and Stream Enviro
dba, K&C Environmental Services, Inc.

Credentials BA in Zoology from the University of California at Berkley

Graduated with high honors
Graduate level courses in Environmental Education
Master's Program at Southern Oregon University

Experience Fisheries Biology Technician with State of Alaska Fish and Game Department

Environmental consulting contracting work in California and Oregon including wetlands inventories and delineations, water quality monitoring, stormwater management botanical inventories, stream surveys, landscape design and community outreach.

Co-founder of grass roots Watershed Enhancement Team resulting in cooperative projects with City of Ashland and Rogue River Siskiyou Forest

Nature Center Stewardship Coordinator for Ashland Parks and Recreation Commission
With over 20 years in this position the responsibilities included:

- ▶ Community involvement in park plan development
- ▶ Application for and coordination of federal, state and private grants acquired for habitat restoration, sustainability and educational projects
- ▶ Development and implementation of volunteer stewardship, service learning and community education programs
- ▶ Coordination of citizen science monitoring programs in collaboration with other agencies and educational organizations